John Dick, former assistant harbor master here, is first officer of the steam schooner Wilmington, which arrived yesterday from the Sound with lumber for Levers & Cooke. The Wilmington was due to leave some time today for the lumber ports. She discharged 600,000 feet of ties, posts and shingles yesterday, exceptionally quick work.

SLIGHT CHANGES COME TO MARKET

Sales of listed securities in the stock market were 1072 shares. Changes were few, Ewa being 1-4 off and Waiialua 1-4 up on recorded sales. Final prices on sales were: Olua 16, Hawaiian C. & S. 50 1-2, Ewa 34 3-4, Waiialua 34 1-2, Onomea 58 1-2, Hawaii Railway A 83-4 and Brewery 19 3-4.

In unlisted securities all were firm, though Engels was the only one to score an advance. Of this stock 1000 sold at $4.97 1-2 and 300 at $5. Other sales were 800 Mineral Products at $127 1-2, 500 Oil at $3.75, 4000 Montana-Bingham 45 cents, 850 Mountain King at 50 cents and 1000 Tipperary at 9 cents.

GOVERNOR TO MEET WAIKIKI PROPERTY OWNERS ON MONDAY

Governor Pinkham today announced next Monday morning at 10 o'clock as the time when he will take up the Waikiki reclamation project with property owners of the district.

MANY NOTABLES HAVE TO REMAIN ON BOARD PERSIA; QUARANTINED

Oodles of notables are on board the T. K. K. liner Persia Maru today, but that doesn't help them any in getting ashore, nor does it help the ship news reporters. Because of the absolute quarantine declared on the vessel no one can get on or off her while she is in port.

Here are the names, according to Purser "Ed" Seeley, of the passengers of prominence. They are on the Persia because she is taking the run the Korea Maru was supposed to have.

Hon. William H. Hornbrook and family. He is the retiring minister from the United States to Siam, appointed by President Wilson two years ago.

Col. William C. Newell, multi-millionaire oil man of Tulsa, Okla. Mrs. Newell is with him. He has been touring the Orient studying mining and oil conditions there. Col. Newell is a geologist of note.

John Becker, W. Tusk and S. Ishii are returning tea buyers coming back from the tea market of the Orient.

Oliver E. Nelson, part owner of the Manila Cables-American. Going to the states on a visit.

George T. Marsh, San Francisco expert on Japanese art and Oriental curios, returning from his fifty-second voyage to the Orient.

Orin C. Lloyd, Standard Oil man of Hankow, China.

James H. Brett, Vladivostok representative of the American Pressed Steel Car Company.

George Roosen, Belgian tinplate manufacturer. Driven out of business by the Germans, who destroyed his factory in Belgium. He has established a factory in Hankow and is on his way to the states to buy raw material to make into tin plates.

George E. Willis, Studebaker representative in Petrograd, Russia. Was agent in Berlin before the war.

OUTRIGGER DANCE TO BE WELL ATTENDED; BIG CROWD CERTAIN

Indications are that the grand opening and inaugural buffet-dance and entertainment which will be held Saturday night by the Outrigger Canoe Club at its Waikiki dancing lagoon, to celebrate the completion of the women's bathhouse, will be the best attended affair given since the fine lagoon, acknowledged to be the best and coolest dancing pavilion in Honolulu, was opened.

Treasurer L. C. Thompson reports tickets to be going rapidly for the affair and the club's order and entertainment committee is making plans to take care of and entertain a large number of members and their guests. Music will be furnished by "Dude" Miller's Hawaiian Glee Club and refreshments of ice cream, punch and wafers will be served without extra charge.

From 7 to 8 o'clock Saturday evening the new bathhouse will be open for inspection. Dancing will begin at 8:30 and there will be several entertainment features to amuse the crowd between dances.
